Among the company of refugees which followed Van Alstine's lead to Canada was Nicholas Hagerman.

He settled in the village of Adolphustown, almost in front of the U.E. burying ground. The point of land here between the bay and the creek is still known as Hagerman's Point. The whole of the land except the burying ground was cleared by Hagerman. His house was situated a short distance west of the road leading from the wharf to the village. It was built near the water's edge. The short period which has elapsed since that building was erected has not only consigned the builder to a grave almost unknown, and the building to the destructive tooth of time, but the very land on which the house stood, where he and his family daily passed in and out, is now washed away by the ceaseless waves of the bay.

Mr. Hagerman was a man of some education, and it is said had studied law before leaving New York. At all events he became one of the first appointed lawyers in Upper Canada, probably at the time McLean, of Kingston, was appointed. He continued to live and practise law in Adolphustown until his death. "He was the first lawyer to plead at these Courts. He was a self-made ~~man~~ man."--Allison.

The writer's parents lived at, and near the village of Adolphustown when young; they knew the Hagermans well, and for many a day and year attended school with Nicholas Hagerman's children. There were at least two brothers, David and Christopher, and two daughters, Betsy and Maria. Daniel was a sedate person, but "Chris." was a saucy boy. They were both elected to Parliament at the same time, (1821) but Daniel died before the meeting of Parliament. Christopher studied law with his father at first, was a pupil of Dr. Strachan's, and completed his legal studies in McLean's office in Kingston. The father and son were sometimes employed by opposing clients; at one time in Kingston, the son won the suit, much to the annoyance of the father. The father exclaimed, "have I raised a son to put out my eyes." No, replied the son, "to open them father." At the commencement of the war of 1812, Christopher went as Lieutenant with a Company from Adolphustown to Kingston. Shortly after he was chosen Aide-de-Camp to the Governor General. Thenceforth his way to preferment was steady. At the close of the war he was appointed Collector of Customs at Kingston. The Gazette of 5th September, 1815, says that Christopher Alexander Hagerman, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, was appointed His Majesty's Council in and for the Province of Upper Canada.

On the 26th March, 1817, he married Elizabeth, eldest daughter of James Macaulay, Esq., of Kingston.

In 1827 an act was passed to incorporate "The Cataraqui Bridge Company, and Christopher Hagerman was one of the shareholders.

p. 246.

Speaking of the U.E.L. Cemetery at Adolphustown, The entrance gate to the ground is at the east side. To the right on entering, a short distance off, is an oak tree, Between the gate and the tree was laid the body of Nicholas Hagerman. Sad to say, nothing indicates the resting-place of the earliest lawyer of the Province, and the father of Judge Hagerman

p. 438.

Mr. Christopher Hagerman represented Kingston in Parliament several years. He removed to Toronto, a few years previous to the rebellion of 1836.

Christopher Hagerman, a native of Adolphustown, arose by promotion from an Ensign to be Aide-de-Camp. The following is from the Kingston Gazette:--"Head Quarters, Upper Canada, York, 15th December, 1813. District General Order. The Lieutenant-General commanding and President has been pleased to appoint Christopher Hagerman, Esq., to be Provincial Aide-de-Camp to his Honor, and to enter the Provincial Rank of Lieutenant-Colonel on Mr. Hagerman."

FISHER.

p. 649

FISHER.--Judge Alexander Fisher, a name well known in the Midland District, was a native of Perthshire, Scotland, from whence his parents, with a numerous family, emigrated to New York, then a British province. At the time of the rebellion they had accumulated a considerable amount of both real and personal property; but at the defeat of Burgoyne, near the place of whose defeat they lived, the Fisher family, who would not abandon their loyalty, left their all, and endured great hardships in finding their way to Montreal. Alexander was subsequently employed in the Commissariat under McLean, at Carleton Island; while his twin-brother obtained the charge of the High School at Montreal, which situation he held until his death in the year 1819. At the close of the war the family obtained their grants of land as U.E.Loyalists.

Alex. Fisher was appointed the first District Judge and Chairman of Quarter Sessions for the Midland District, to the last of which he was elected by his brother magistrates. He was also for many years a Captain of Militia, which post he held during the war of 1812. The family took up their abode in Adolphustown, upon the shores of Hay Bay. A sister of Judge Fisher was married to Mr. Hagerman, and another to Mr. Stocker, who, for a time, lived on the front of Sidney. He was related, by marriage, to McDonnell, of Marysburgh. His parents lived with him at the farm in Adolphustown. They were buried here in the family vault, with a brother, and the Judge's only son.

Judge Fisher was short in stature, and somewhat stout, with a prominent nose. He was, as a judge, and as a private individual, universally esteemed. "He was a man of great discernment, and moral honesty governed his decisions."--(Allison). He died in the year 1830, and was buried in the family vault. As an evidence of the high esteem in which he was held, there was scarcely a lawyer or magistrate in the whole District, from the Carrying Place to Gananoque, who did not attend his funeral, together with a great concourse of the settlers throughout the counties.

There is in the Township Records, a Return of the inhabitants for 1794, March, with the names of each family, and the number of members in each.

Of ----- Wm Stoughton ----- it has been impossible to obtain any information other than that contained in the Register itself, although there is some reason to believe that there are descendants of some of them still living within the limits of the old Westchester or Midland District.

P63

Mr Stoughton, whose son became a clergyman, appears as a father, a sponsor, a parishholder, & a Warden for the year 1797. Mr Merrill, who was a vestryman in 1802, was married in Kingston & his children were baptized there. His son also became a clergyman.

The first of the season was a very fine day, with a light breeze from the west, and a few clouds in the sky. The temperature was in the 70's, and the water was quite warm. We went out in the morning, and found the fish very plentiful. We caught several of the large ones, and a few of the small ones. The fish were very fat, and the flesh was very tender. We had a very good dinner, and were very much pleased with the result. The weather was very pleasant, and we enjoyed the trip very much. We went out again in the afternoon, and found the fish very plentiful. We caught several of the large ones, and a few of the small ones. The fish were very fat, and the flesh was very tender. We had a very good dinner, and were very much pleased with the result. The weather was very pleasant, and we enjoyed the trip very much.

The script appears to be a form of Maghrebi or Ottoman Turkish. The document is organized into several paragraphs, with some lines indented. There are some faint markings that could be numbers or dates, such as "11" at the bottom left. The overall appearance is that of an old, possibly historical, document.

Education — The Public are respectfully informed that The Academy at Bath, under the superintendence of Rev. J.
Stoughton is now re-opened, for the reception of pupils, under very peculiar advantages. Mr. Shirley, an experienced English Teacher, has been engaged as an Assistant, and the tuition fees for the English department have been considerably reduced. Pupils can be accommodated with board and lodging, in respectable families on very moderate terms.
Reference, as to the abilities of the Assistant, — the system of tuition, etc., may be made to the Venerable the Archdeacon of Kingston, who has recently visited and examined the school. — The healthy situation of the Village of Bath needs no recommendation.

Stoughton Pedigree, compiled by Canon McTear.

The Rev. John Stoughton was born in Kingston 1794 and baptized 15 June 1794, the son of William Stoughton, a silversmith, and Anne Gray, his wife, the daughter of John Gray and Christiana Macdonald (McDonell), and whose sister Jane married James Bayman. He was ordained in Quebec in 1819 and married Maria Hagerman on 13 June 1821. Her brother became Chief Justice Hagerman.

His brothers and sisters names are as follows:

1. Maria, bapt. 19 Mar. 1809, marr. John Thirkell.
2. James, bapt. 20 Mar. 1796, marr. Mary Blanchard.
3. Alexander, bapt. 20 Oct. 1805, marr. Mary Olcott.
4. Samuel, bapt. 20 Oct. 1805, marr. Catharine Sinclair.
5. William.
6. Henry.
7. Joseph.
8. Mary, bapt. 1 Apr. 1798, marr. Joseph Dennis.
9. Ann Levina, bapt. 17 Feb. 1811.
10. Christie.
11. Jane, bapt. 22 Mar. 1801.

Mr. Stoughton's children's names follow.

1. Jane, marr. Mr. Essen.
2. Elizabeth) Resided in Hale's Cottages for many years at Portsmouth.
3. Margaret)
4. Henry plus Essen.

The Rev. John Stoughton died on Thursday at the Parsonage, Bath, in his 42nd year, where he had officiated for nearly sixteen years; a man amiable in his domestic relations, and a plain, sensible and sound Preacher." (Com. He was buried at the East of the Church and when an extension was made (about 1844?) the Chancel was built over his resting place.

A. L. McTear, 1915.

The Rev. John Stoughton was the second rector of St. John's Church. The first, Rev. John Langhorn, served from Oct. 1787 to 1813, when he returned to England. Rev. Richard served as curate and missionary in 1814 and 1815, at the same time serving as chaplain to the Forces in Kingston. The Rev. John Wilson was curate from 1816 to 1818.

The Rev. Mr. Stoughton's name first appears in the Vestry Book for Easter Monday, April 12, 1819, at which meeting a Committee was chosen "to carry into effect some proposed alterations in said Church, in a dome for an altar to be erected at the East End of said Church." In 1820 there is mention of 110 feet of boards and the erection of pews of the Rev. J. Stoughton, at a cost of £2.0.0. At the Vestry Meeting in 1822, it was moved and carried "that the pew at present occupied by the Clergyman be presented to the Clergyman for the time of their belonging to the parish and be free of rent as compensation for the stove presented this Church by our Revd. Clergyman, Mr. Stoughton." In 1825 the Bishop, Jacob Mountain, of Quebec, died 18 June, aged 74 years. Then appears the following: "Expenses of putting the Church in Mourning for the death of the Lord Bishop, 25 June 1825.

- "16½ yards bombazette at 1/3, at Peter Ham's.
- "15½ " " " " at George Ham's.
- "7½ yards crape at Wm. Fairfield's at 3/-
- "1 yard black velvet at William Fairfield's.
- "1 piece of frisetting at Wm. Fairfield's."

At the 1826 Vestry meeting is noted various other expenses in connection with the death of my Lord Bishop. "Expenses include mending gate 1/6, Fielos for a Bier 15/-. Expenses for putting the Church in Mourning £4.3.10." Then, the following "memo:

Vestry Book.

Stoughton
Stalker
2 Essen

Fredericksburgh Church Dr to St. John's Church for 18 yards of Bombazette @ 1/3.
Rev. John Stoughton bought the remainder of the bombazette @ 1/3. Then the following resolution: "Resolved that this vestry authorize the minister and wardens of St. John's Church to appropriate from the monies awarded to this church by the Commissioners for settling Claims for losses during the late war, the sum of Three Pounds, fifteen shillings for the ~~purchase~~ purchase of a New Bible and Common Prayer-Book for the use of said Church." "Balance due St. John's Church by Commission er's award on claims for losses during the late war £6.10.0"

In 1830, 6 April, a Special Meeting of "the inhabitants of Ernesttown was held at Mr. Peter Davy's for the purpose of considering the expediency of Building a new Protestant Episcopal Church in the Village of Bath." Committees were set up to draw plans and to collect funds. But nothing concrete was accomplished during the lifetime of the Rev. John Stoughton. He died between the annual Vestry Meeting Easter Monday 1836 and June 6, of that year, when a Special Meeting was held, at which Rev. A. F. Atkinson was Rector.

The family of the Rev. Mr. Stoughton continued to reside in Bath. Mrs. Stoughton occupied a pew in 1837, ~~while the family remained in 1841, 1842, after which the names of pew holders are not given.~~ 1841, 1842, after which the names of pew holders are not given. The name of Essen first appears in 1841, when Mr. Essen was present at the annual Vestry Meeting. In 1841 Mr. J. Essom and Mr. McDonnell occupied a pew, but not thereafter. It is interesting, from a genealogical viewpoint, to note that the name of James Stalker is among those present at the Vestry Meeting of 1841, and that he occupied a pew for the same year. He was a pewholder in 1842. Thereafter these three names disappear from the records.
